I am an Executive Officer employed in the Home Office. It is part of my duties to ascertain, from existing Home Office records, the immigration status of persons who are subject to control under the Immigration Act 1971 as amended, and to have responsibility for the custody of Home Office records.

The aforesaid records were created by officers at the Home Office in the course of their duties in relation to matters they had personal knowledge of at the time, from documents they received or from information supplied by persons who had personal knowledge of the case. The persons who created the records, or supplied the information, cannot reasonably be expected, having regard to the time which has elapsed since the information was supplied and to all the circumstances, to have any recollection of the matters dealt with at the time. Please note that I am not an Immigration Officer or a Home Office caseworker, therefore the only questions that I can answer, should I be called as a witness in the case, would be those concerning the facts that have been recorded in my statement that were obtained from Home Office records.

Home Office computer records show that on 14th July 2017, , , a national of India, date of birth , was issued with entry clearance to the United Kingdom as a Business Visitor, valid for entry until 14th January 2018, on condition no work or recourse to public funds.
